Course Duration: 8 hours

Max. Number of Students: 40

Instructional Setting: Classroom

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to ensure a quality presentation of street level communication skills training for the road officer, corrections officer and supervisors. This course teaches the importance of listening to an individual in crisis or experiencing trauma, accessing the situation and understanding the need to communicate properly and professionally during the current call for service or corrections incident. This course is designed to teach the basic skills, techniques and concepts required of patrol or corrections officers, with an emphasis on communication and active listening.

Topics Include:

- Essential Communication Skills
- Active Listening Skills
- How Trauma Effects Individuals Differently
- The Law Enforcement Officer and Defusing the PTSD Subject
- Theories of Motivation-Psychology
- Mental Disorders; ASPD, DPD, BPD, and PPD
- Stress Management

COURSE GOAL:

To provide the patrol officer/deputy, corrections officer and supervisors with the skills, techniques and basic concepts needed to assist and help those in need involving subjects in crisis, agitated individuals, mentally disabled, or potentially violent subjects. The Law Enforcement Officer will learn the importance of identifying and interpreting an individual’s body language as well as other indicators, in identifying subjects in crisis. An understanding as well as practical knowledge of these concepts and skills is fundamental for the safety of our law enforcement officers, as well as the subjects they come in contact with.
